EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Position: Early Childhood Teacher of the Deaf
Salary: Based upon collective bargaining agreement
Date Issued: August 28, 2018
Date Closed: Until Filled

Maine Educational Center for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing and the Governor Baxter School for the Deaf is seeking to fill a full time, 185-day Early Childhood Teacher of the Deaf.

The Early Childhood Programs at MECDDH are committed to the enhancement of the developmental needs of children. A central component of our program is the development of language and communication in young children, with full respect and support given to the array of language and communication features that families may choose for their child.

Job Description: This position is responsible for providing instruction and support to our children in our preschool program who are deaf, hard of hearing and our hearing peers. This teacher will work collaboratively with an interdisciplinary early childhood team to meet the needs of our students. Additionally, this position will be responsible for:

- Development of weekly lesson plans, curriculum planning, progress reports and documentation.
- Assessment of students.
- Collaboration with CDS and other service agencies and providers.
- Participation in IEP meetings.
- Ongoing parent communication.
- Following National Association for the Education of the Young Child standards.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Certification as or eligibility for Teacher of the Deaf (292) certification.
- Educational background in Deaf Education
- Fluency in American Sign Language
- Experience collaborating with families
- Outstanding interpersonal and communication skills
- Ability to work collaboratively with a team of professionals
- Early Childhood Education experience

A competitive salary and benefits package, including medical/dental insurance, Maine State Retirement and paid sick/personal time, is offered.
